

St. John the Evangelist School is a Pre-K to Grade 8 School located in Attleboro, Massachusetts. We are in search of the ideal candidate for a full-time opportunity as a Middle School Religion teacher. As a Catholic School, we recognize and accept our responsibility to develop the whole child in his/her spiritual, moral, academic, emotional and social growth. We live this philosophy as partners in the education process. St. John's is a parish school of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Fall River. The candidate will have a strong background in teaching methods, educational pedagogy, and prior experience teaching at the intermediate level. This candidate will be responsible for providing effective instruction in Catholic theology and social justice based on the needs and capabilities of our students. Applicants should have the ability to incorporate the tenets of the Catholic Faith into the curriculum. The ideal candidate should have excellent written and verbal competencies, strong organizational skills, be a positive team player, have exceptional classroom management skills, be able to differentiate instruction, communicate and collaborate effectively with students, colleagues, and parents, and participate in school-wide functions.

Candidates should hold a current MA DESE Educator License (Teacher Certification) and a Bachelor's or Master's Degree from an accredited school in elementary education. The Roman Catholic Diocese of Fall River does not discriminate in employment opportunities or practices (consistent with those religious exemptions provided in statutory and constitutional law) on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, or any other characteristic protected by law. Please mail or email Letter of Intent and Resume to: Kellie Kickham, Principal, St. John the Evangelist School, 13 Hodges Street, Attleboro, MA 02703 or kkickham@sje-school.com.
